

BROTHER WE'VE STOLEN YOUR STUFF!

With man-tailored sportswear dominating the fashion picture this fall... tweeds, sweaters and jerseys—just loads of jerseys in every color combination in the spectrum... we girls have adapted just about everything in the male wardrobe to our own outdoor use. Now we throw the spotlight on another great male robbery—the man-tailored, zipper-front jersey pullover. Yes sir, we've taken the shirt right off your back.

The stunning, two-tone body is fashioned of a fine cotton interlock that carries no excess weight and is shrink set. This means a minimum of stretch and a maximum of perfect washability—the smart fit after laundering as before. It has the fit, drape and tailoring we've always envied in men's sportshirts and which makes you feel good indoors or out.

In "in or out," it is cut long enough to be belted on the outside of your skirt or slacks but equally good-looking tucked in; and it will not ride up or pull out no matter how active you are. The collar, too, is really cut for comfort with wide facing and a zipper opening that's extremely chic with a brief scarf or one of those newer bar pins. It is a lightweight substitute for sweaters under a suit jacket and, of course, far newer. Golfers and the campus crowd love this new man-tailored idea but since it is as popular with the career girl—and her mother, too —the college girl has no corner on it. It is perfect for town or country and a godsend if you're traveling. Two or three in different color combinations, which you can buy right here in They Gay Shop, gives you all the change you need. Now is the time to look over your supply of jerseys and brighten your wardrobe with some new ones. They're grand for gifts, too.

Orange St. PTA Chorus Dates Back 16 Years

Flourishing Mothersingers of Orange Street PTA, a unique organization ever mindful of their first adopted motto "For the sake of better music in the home," dates back more than 16 years.

Others all over the state as members of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers have been encouraged to organize Mothersinger groups until those partaking in the musical program each year at the state convention has grown until this last year they numbered nearly 600 when presented under the baton of Mrs. Nancy Pauline Turner, state PTA Director of Music.

Orange Street PTA was proud to have their president in 1932, Mrs. Hazel Newman, appointed as first music director of Loma-San Pedro PTA Council and in charge of its chorus, many of whom were from Orange Street PTA including Mesdames Ernest Garcelon, Clifford Kette, W. M. Schindmeyer, Earl Roberts, Irene Howe, Joseph Marriott, Kenneth Schwartz, V. E. Larson, A. Ramsey, E. L. Gibson and Vernon Taylor.

Mrs. Newman recalls that her chorus then numbered between 30 and 40 and were invited to sing at a San Pedro Song Festival presenting the selection "Going Home." Mrs. Irene Howe, PTA president at that time, played an important role in the group when they assisted the local association in presenting a very successful minstrel show staged at Narbonne High School and later, upon request, given at Richard Dana Junior High School in San Pedro.

From 1936 and 1944 various groups gathered to promote mu-
